EXPLORATIONS

University of California,
Berkeley + San Francisco

See how many different ways

your interests can be studied and applied to the real world. Dive into one of these dynamic subjects with new ideas, real projects, and seasoned professionals in industry and research centers around the Bay Area.

Criminal Investigations

Team up with a career federal investigator and special agent to sift through crime scenes, identify fact patterns, and analyze evidence. Go behind the scenes with a major metropolitan police department bomb unit as they detonate a vehicle and sift through the remains. Examine animal biological materials in the world's leading veterinary forensics lab at UC Davis to see how animals can be crime victims, perpetrators, and even witnesses.

Psychology + Neuroscience

Join a Stanford University neuroscientist specializing in neural imaging and the development of personalized neurotherapies to dissect and examine a brain to observe its physical structures and conditions. Conceive new products with a psychologist at a leading learning toy and game company. Collaborate with Berkeley researchers doing work in neural regeneration and brain plasticity.

Life at Berkeley

Live on campus as a 24/7 residential student, or commute, starting your day at 8:30 a.m. and staying as late as 9:00 p.m. with new friends from around the world. Whether you're a resident or commuter, join weekend trips to iconic locations around San Francisco, and jumpstart your college applications with workshops on the UC admission process, essay writing, and college interview skills. Tour the Berkeley campus and visit Stanford University and Santa Clara University.
